TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Respect for inclusivity:

VU promotes inclusivity of all kinds; therefore, any derogatory or discriminating remarks, slogans, visual representations, actions, etc. OR discrimination against any religion, race, ethnicity, or gender shall not be tolerated and is prohibited on campus.

Attire Guidelines:

● Participants as well as the audience must adhere to the Attire Guidelines as specified.

● Sleeveless, deep necks, above-the-knee, and backless dresses are not allowed throughout the event.

● Participants dressing up in any attire must choose their attire respectfully, avoiding any controversial or offensive portrayals, and shall avoid obscenity.

● Participants are encouraged to prioritize comfort and safety in their outfit choices, ensuring ease of movement and suitability for the event's activities.

● Any attire that violates the code of conduct prescribed by the organisers will result in denial of entry to any activity of the programme as a participant, as well as an audience for the programme.

Theme Representation:

Participants are encouraged to creatively interpret the dress code (within the limits of these guidelines) while ensuring their outfits align with the given guidelines.

Cultural Sensitivity:

Attire choices should demonstrate cultural sensitivity and avoid appropriation or misrepresentation of any artistic or ethnic group, lowering the authenticity of the cultural values.

Environmental Awareness:

Participants should consider sustainability when selecting outfits, opting for eco-friendly materials and avoiding single-use fashion items.

These rules aim to create a respectful and inclusive environment, ensuring the safety and enjoyment of all participants during Vishwaayan 2026.

Self-Declaration Notice

I, a student at Vishwakarma University, hereby acknowledge and accept the following terms and conditions:

- Vishwakarma University and the Student Council are not liable for any consequences, including illness or health issues, arising from the consumption of food or beverages available during university events.
- I will exercise my own judgment and discretion when consuming food or beverages, considering any known allergies or dietary restrictions.
- I am solely responsible for the safety and security of my personal belongings, including electronic devices, bags, wallets, and other valuables.
- Vishwakarma University and the Student Council are not liable for any loss, theft, or damage to my personal items on university premises or during events.

Important Note:

Students are reminded to refrain from engaging in violence, non-cooperation with authorities, including organizers, use or consumption of illicit substances, sloganeering, making sexist comments, or engaging in behavior that may hurt religious sentiments, disrupt campus discipline, or create excessive noise with vehicles, speakers, or any kind of devices on the university campus. Strict disciplinary actions involving the respective department's HoDs will be taken against those found violating these guidelines.

Student Council,

Team Vishwaayan 2026,

Vishwakarma University, Pune.